Fort Hays State University

TODAY'S GAME

THE GAME: Tonight's game features the Fort Hays State University Tigers against the Adams State College Grizzlies. The Tigers enter the game 0-2 on the season after dropping a 37-14 decision at Missouri Western last Saturday. ASC is also 0-2 on the season. The Grizzlies lost last Saturday to Northern Colorado 41-6. It is the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference opener for both teams.

THE SERIES: FHSU leads the all-time series 11-3-1.

LAST YEAR: After a 2-0 start, the Tigers traveled to Alamosa, Colorado to face the Grizzlies at Rex Stadium. ASC entered the contest 0-2, but upset the Tigers 35-28. It was the second consecutive victory for the Grizzlies over the Tigers. ASC beat FHSU 31-13 in 1999 to end an 11-game losing streak to the Tigers that dated by to the 1987 season.

THE COACHES: Tim O'Connor is in his first season of directing the FHSU football program. The Boise State University graduate has been a Tiger assistant coach since 1992. His first squad was picked by conference coaches to finish fourth in the RMAC this season. Wayne McGinn is in his second season at Adams State. His first squad a year ago posted a record of 3-7. McGinn is an Adams State graduate and a former All-American at the school. Before becoming the head coach at ASC, McGinn served as the defensive coordinator at Western State College in Gunnison, Colorado.

ADAMS STATE COLLEGE: The Adams State Grizzlies enter this Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference opener with a record of 0-2 overall after two road losses at Western New Mexico (26-29) and Northern Colorado (6-41). ASC returns 31 letterwinners and 15 starters from a 3-7 team last year. The Grizzlies went 3-5 in RMAC play in 2000, tying Fort Hays State for fifth place in the conference.

On offense, the Grizzlies are led by tailback Pheon Bright (5-9 190 Sr.) who has gained 206 yards on 50 carries through the first two games. Bright has scored two touchdowns and is averaging 4.1 yards per carry. Matt Gotta and Grant Wagner have shared time at the quarterback spot. Gotta is 11-for-24 passing for 123 yards with one touchdown, while Wagner is 4-for-16 for 90 yards and a touchdown. Both players have each thrown one interception. Brian Bohanon (5-11 170 So.), who caught a 26-yard touchdown pass against the Tigers last season, is the leading ASC receiver this year with 5 catches for 98 yards and a touchdown.

The Grizzly defensive unit is led by strong safety Jason Semore (5-11 191 Fr.) who leads the team in tackles through two games with 22 and has 1 interception. Linebacker Kelton Smith is second on the team with 21 tackles, 2 for loss and a sack. Through two games, ASC has allowed an average of 457 total yards and 35 points. Offensively, the Grizzlies average 238 yards and 16 points.

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY: The Tigers will be trying to avoid their first 0-3 start since 1997. FHSU dropped a 38-21 decision to Emporia State in week one before losing at Missouri Western last Saturday 37-14. Since 1990, the Tigers are 4-7 in week three games.

Through two games, the Tiger offense is being paced by tailback Jason Broom. The Sapulpa, Oklahoma junior has rushed for 174 yards on 48 carries. However, Broom was held to only 22 yards rushing last week in the loss to Missouri Western after gaining 152 yards versus Emporia State in week one. Quarterback Jason Brown (6-3 230 Sr.) is averaging 208 yards per game passing through two games this season. Brown has thrown three touchdown passes with four interceptions while completing 56.5 percent of his passes. Mike Jackson (6-1 180 Jr.) and Beau Rebel (6-0 190 So.) have been Brown's favorite targets so far. Both players have 8 receptions and a touchdown. Through two games, FHSU is averaging 307 yards of total offense and 18 points.

Junior strong safety Jace Pavlovich (5-10 205) had 15 tackles versus Missouri Western and leads all Tiger defenders with 24 tackles through two weeks. Linebacker Michael Balloue (5-10 220 Sr.) is second on the team in total tackles with 15 and is tied with defensive tackle Casey Seyfert (6-1 275 Sr.) for tackles for loss with four. Balloue has one of three FHSU quarterback sacks this year with defensive ends Jason Dechant (6-5 255 So.) and Kelly Griffeth (6-5 260 Fr.) recording the other two. After two games, the defense has allowed an average of 434 total yards and 38 points per game.
